

BREAKING NEWS: PED releases annual school grades report

Written by gallupsun
Tuesday, 22 August 2017 19:04

Highlights from school grades data for Gallup McKinley County Schools, released by New Mexico Public Education Department today.

Six schools dropped two grades when compared to last year's results. Crownpoint Elementary went from C to F; David Skeet Elementary went from B to D; Indian Hills Elementary from A to C; Thoreau Elementary from B to D; Tohatchi Middle from C to F; and Twin Lakes Elementary from C to F.

Eight schools dropped by one grade this year. Catherine Miller Elementary went from D to F; Chief Manuelito B to C; Crownpoint Middle from A to B; John F. Kennedy Middle from B to C; Middle College High Charter from B to C; Rocky View Elementary from C to D; Thoreau High from C to D; Tohatchi High from B to C.

Ramah Elementary and Juan de Onate Elementary leapt upward two grades this year, with Ramah earning a B, and Juan de Onate taking the coveted A grade. Lincoln Elementary and Tse Yi Gai High both rose to an A. And Washington Elementary and Jefferson Elementary each increased by one grade to a B. Tse Yi Gai High is one of the top 100 schools in the state, coming in at No. 78.

Pick up Friday's edition of the Gallup Sun for further details on the report. Visit:
<http://aae.ped.state.nm.us>

Written by gallupsun
Tuesday, 22 August 2017 19:04

Tuesday, 22 August 2017 19:04

