

Man arrested for attempted robbery at westside gas station

Written by gallupsun
Wednesday, 02 May 2018 00:15

Today at approximately 3:36 pm, Gallup Police Responded to Mustang Conoco west at 3302 West Highway 66 in reference to a Native American male pulling a gun on a female outside of the store.

The male asked for money but was denied and responded by pulling out what appeared to the victim to be a black gun. He then fled from the area and the female called for police. Gallup Police arrived on scene and began searching the area. With help from witnesses the suspect was located a short time later hiding in the shrubbery east of the Microtel Inn.

An Air soft gun was also located near the suspect's location. Jarvis Canuto, 43, from Mentmore, was arrested and booked into the McKinley Adult Detention Center for attempted robbery and an arrest warrant from Bernalillo County .