

Man charged with murder in 2nd Street stabbing

Written by gallupsun
Thursday, 04 October 2018 07:55

Staff Reports

Despite first responders life saving measures, an unidentified man died Oct. 3 from stab wounds sustained during an alleged confrontation with another man near Second Street and Hill Avenue.

Gallup Police responded to the area near Octavia Fellin Public Library shortly before 1 pm and found the badly injured victim.

Officers were able to get a lead on the suspect with the

the assistance of witnesses.

Detectives were called to the scene and began interviewing witnesses and processing the scene for evidence.

Late Wednesday evening, Gallup Police arrested Gregory L. Long, 26, for an open count of murder. He was booked into the Gallup McKinley Adult Detention Center with no bond. Prior to being booked, he was taken to Gallup Indian Medical Center for treatment for unknown causes.

The victim's next of kin has been notified, and the release of his name is pending.

Man charged with murder in 2nd Street stabbing

Written by gallupsun

Thursday, 04 October 2018 07:55
