

Senate Public Affairs Committee passes non-REAL ID, driver's license bill

Written by gallupsun
Friday, 08 February 2019 19:24

SANTA FE, N.M. – On Feb. 7, the Senate Public Affairs Committee (APAC) passed SB 278, the Senate Bill for the State of New Mexico (SBNM) titled "We've made some great strides in providing this opportunity for citizens to get their driver's licenses." This bill would allow for the use of a driver's license as a form of identification for state agencies.