Missing horse

Missy, a Palomino Quarter horse, bronze in color with a blonde platinum tail and mane, was reported stolen out of Gary Langston's 17-acre property in Gallup in August, where she had been fenced in. Langston suspects someone could have opened the gate, which has no lock. Missy does not have a brand. Her tail is offset to the right due to a previous injury. Photo Credit:

Gary Langston