are preparing for the big spread.

During the Balloonminaria at Rio West mall Dec. 8, volunteers from the Community Pantry will be moving amongst the crowd in purple hoodies and yellow vests (see picture on bottom right) selling hot chocolate packets for $3 apiece. Each packet contains a cup, hot chocolate, marshmallows and a candy cane stick stirrer.

Each year, the Balloon Rally Association helps the Community Pantry with funding by partnering with them. The ballooning family from all over the U.S. has always been a great supporter of the Community Pantry and its mission.
