

Eleven test positive at RMCH

Written by gallupsun
Thursday, 23 April 2020 14:47

Eleven employees at Rehoboth McKinley Christian Hospital have tested positive for COVID-19 as of April 22. The staff members are under quarantine until they are cleared. The hospital is in the process of testing and identifying all employees who may have been exposed to the 11 who tested positive.

