

November Saturation Patrol

Written by Staff Reports

Friday, 12 November 2021 05:49

State Police will be conducting sobriety checkpoints, saturation patrols, and registration, insurance, and driver's license checkpoints in all New Mexico counties during the month of November to reduce alcohol-related fatalities.

The New Mexico State Police says these checkpoints are helping change attitudes about drinking and driving.