Following an armed robbery, Gallup police are seeking information about three suspects.

A single gun shot was fired inside C and R Insurance at 1365 N. U. S. Hwy. 491 Dec. 4, during a robbery. No injuries were reported. The amount of money taken has not been determined.

The suspects being sought by police are described as a female wearing a black beanie, black handkerchief, black pullover with the letters "FB" in white on the front, and black pants.

Two males are also being sought. The first is described as wearing a gray or green beanie, black handkerchief, black long-sleeved shirt and black pants. The second was said to be wearing a red handkerchief, black jacket, and white pants.

All three suspects were armed and reports indicate all are possibly Native American.

They left in a new model silver four-door passenger car with a sun roof.

The car had a black car-bra on the front bumper, and chrome rims. It left traveling north bound on U. S. Highway 491 at a high rate of speed.
