By Shepherd Waldenberger
Sun Correspondent

Gallup High School was placed on lockdown at about 10:15 am Jan 27 due to a bomb threat. No one except police were allowed to enter, and many parents who came for a wrestling meet were stuck waiting outside the fenced in area.

Everyone inside school grounds was evacuated out to the a as well as