

Glitzing up Gallup

Written by Staff Reports Photos by NativeStars
Friday, 23 September 2016 02:56

Glitzing up Gallup

Written by Staff Reports Photos by NativeStars
Friday, 23 September 2016 02:56

Glitzing up Gallup

Written by Staff Reports Photos by NativeStars
Friday, 23 September 2016 02:56

Tabitha Fair and Original Score
The film, "The Story of the Three Little Pigs" (2015), is a children's film, for which she won the Best Children's Film award at the 2016 Gallup Film Festival. The film is a retelling of the classic fairy tale, "The Three Little Pigs," and is set in a modern, urban environment. The film is a collaboration between the director and a group of local children, who were involved in the scriptwriting and filming process. The film is a heartwarming story about friendship, family, and the power of imagination. The film is a testament to the director's talent and the power of children's stories.