

Body found behind former Silver Stallion Saloon

Written by Staff Reports

Friday, 16 November 2018 09:28

Gallup Police responded to 2604 E. Hwy. 66, behind the old Silver Stallion Saloon, in reference to a report of a male down and out in the field south of Silver Stallion with no shirt on Nov. 11 at about 7:10 am.

GPD Officer Brandon Salazar arrived on scene and checked for vitals on the person. No vitals were found and Officer Salazar requested medical personnel.

The Gallup Fire Department arrived on scene and confirmed the individual was deceased.

The Office of the Medical Investigator and GPD detectives were also called to the scene to investigate.

According to GPD Captain Marinda Spencer, the body has been identified as David Livingston, 52, from the Church Rock area.

No signs of trauma were evident and foul play was not suspected, according to police.