

Body found in vehicle on Gallup's north side

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 29 March 2019 05:45

Few details were available at press time regarding a body found inside of a vehicle by Gallup police officers March 20.

Gallup Police Department spokeswoman Marinda Spencer said the 37-year-old man sustained a gunshot injury, but foul play isn't suspected at this time.

"The death is under investigation and pending results from the Office of the Medical Investigator," Spencer said.

Spencer added that the man's name will be released pending notification of next of kin.