

Navajo Police seek public's assistance in locating missing woman

Written by Staff Reports

Thursday, 18 July 2019 23:35

PINON, Ariz. - The Navajo Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating Jamie Yazzie from Pinon, Ariz. Yazzie's last known contact was June 30 when she communicated with a co-worker. She has not been seen or heard from since.

Yazzie is a Native American woman from the Navajo tribe. She was last seen leaving her employment at the Pinon Clinic in Pinon, Ariz. She is about 5'5" tall with brown eyes and black hair. She weighs between 230-240 lbs and is 32 years old.

Navajo Police Department received a call on July 5 when a co-worker reported that Yazzie's vehicle was found less than a mile east of the Pinon Clinic. An active search is currently being conducted in the area where her vehicle was found.

If anyone has any information or has seen Jamie Yazzie, please call the Navajo Police Department at 928-674-2111.