

Window gun-waver apprehended

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 26 July 2019 02:57

Window gun-waver apprehended

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 26 July 2019 02:57

During an investigation of a shooting in the 4000 block of North 4th Street, a man was apprehended for allegedly firing a handgun from a vehicle window. The man, who is 30 years old and has a criminal record, was arrested by police officers who were investigating the shooting. The man was taken to the police station and is currently being held in custody. The investigation is ongoing, and police are looking for more information about the shooting.