Anson Shirley

Sept. 22, 7:56 pm

DWI (fourth offense)

McKinley County Sheriff's Deputy Roane Alan was on routine patrol when he received a call from off-duty Deputy Johnson Lee, who advised he was following a black passenger car that was driving recklessly and not maintaining its lane.

Alan caught up to the vehicle near Clark Street and Viro Park and proceeded to make a traffic stop. The driver, identified as Anson Shirley, 28, of Ganado, exited the vehicle and Alan said he smelled of alcohol. Shirley also had bloodshot watery eyes and slurred speech when he told Alan he had a bottle of imported vodka earlier.

Shirley consented to the standard field sobriety test, but eventually refused, and stood behind his vehicle with his hands behind his back. Alan placed Shirley under arrest, reading him the New Mexico Implied Consent Advisory before transporting him to the McKinley County Sheriff's Office.

There, Shirley was unable to give a consistent breath test, so he was transported to Rehoboth McKinley Christian Health Care Services for a blood draw. When that concluded, Shirley was transported to the McKinley County Adult Detention Center and booked.

Garret Begay

Sept. 22, 6:20 pm

DWI (fourth offense)

After hearing a crash and receiving a call for service, McKinley County Sheriff Sgt. Tammy Houghtaling headed to the site on Ninth Street, near Jefferson Avenue, where two vehicles were parked.

At the scene, Houghtaling made contact with the caller, Ronald Singer, who said he was fine. Singer told Houghtaling he had been traveling south on Ninth Street, but a driver headed north had turned and stopped his vehicle in front of Singer's, resulting in a collision.

Houghtaling made contact with the driver of the other vehicle, Garret Begay, 46, of Ft. Wingate, who carried a strong odor of liquor on his breath and had bloodshot, watery eyes and difficulty maintaining his balance.

After stating he did not have much to drink, Begay agreed to the standard field sobriety test. But he appeared to have trouble following directions, and eventually was unable to complete the test.

Begay was placed under arrest. After placing him in handcuffs, Houghtaling found an empty miniature of Southern Comfort whiskey in his left pants pocket. She read him the New Mexico Implied Consent Advisory, and Begay agreed to a breath test.

While transporting Begay to McKinley County Sheriff's Office, Houghtaling was advised Begay's license had been revoked for a previous DWI, and he had three DWIs on his license in total.

Begay posted samples of .28, .24, and .24. He was then transported to the McKinley County Adult Detention Center and booked.

McKinley County Sheriff's Deputy Paul Davis Jr. was dispatched to near mile marker 13 on State Highway 118 in reference to a reported vehicle crash.

Upon arriving at the site, David made contact with a gray Buick parked on the south side of the highway. A volunteer McKinley County Fire unit was on the scene and tending to two individuals, identified as Felicia Herder and Harry Richard Bahe, 79, of St. Michaels, Ariz.
