The FBI has released a poster in the Navajo language offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the individual(s) responsible for the death of James Naswood.

The poster is the second the FBI has issued in Navajo. In March, the FBI released a poster in Navajo advertising a reward of up to $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the responsible individual(s) in the 2014 homicide of Wilson Chiquito, of Counselor, New Mexico.

On Nov. 8, 2019, at approximately 3:30 pm Naswood was found deceased in the front passenger seat of a red Pontiac Grand Am on New Mexico Highway 602 between mile markers 19 and 20 in Red Rock, N.M., on the Navajo Nation.

Anyone with information on the case is asked to contact the FBI at (505) 889-1300 or online at ti ps.fbi.gov.

The FBI is working with the Navajo Nation Division of Public Safety on these cases.
