

Search warrant leads to double arrest

Written by gallupsun

Friday, 19 November 2021 19:35

Gallup Police Department Narcotics Agents served a search warrant at Desert Skies Motel room #12 in Gallup Nov. 18.

The search warrant was related to an investigation into the alleged trafficking of Heroin. Paul Acevedo, 60, of Gallup, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance, heroin and methamphetamine, a fourth-degree felony for both drugs.

Alexa Gomez 30, of Gallup, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance a narcotic drug, a fourth-degree felony and concealing identity, a misdemeanor.

Acevedo and Gomez were booked into the McKinley County Adult Detention Center.