

Sun's glare can be fatal

Written by Staff Reports

Thursday, 25 November 2021 09:46

Two semi trucks traveling east bound on Interstate 40 in the right hand lane collided just after 7 am on Nov. 16 when the truck in front slowed due to the glare of the sun. The truck traveling behind it did not slow and hit the back of the first semi.

Sun's glare can be fatal

Written by Staff Reports

Thursday, 25 November 2021 09:46

The collision started a fire which completely engulfed the cab of the second semi. The driver of that truck was killed. No identity has been released.

The driver of the first truck was taken to the hospital after complaining of injuries. The severity of the injuries has not been reported.