

Woman's body found in Laguna Pueblo, N.M.

Written by Staff Reports

Wednesday, 20 April 2022 05:16

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the death of Moná Renee Vallo.

On March 9, passers-by discovered the body of Vallo on U.S. Route 66, Highway 124, mile marker 20, in Laguna Pueblo, N.M.

Her injuries were consistent with a hit-and-run crash. She may have been struck at approximately 7 pm on March 9.

"The deaths of too many Native American men and women remain unsolved," Special Agent in Charge Raul Bujanda of the Albuquerque FBI Division said in a press release. "We are working with the Pueblo of Laguna Public Safety Department to give Moná's family the justice they deserve. The public can help by contacting us if they have any information about her death."

Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact the FBI at (505)-889-1300 or go online to tips.fbi.gov.

Vallo was a member of the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation and a resident of Acoma, N.M.