

The Moon goes Void of Couse on March 17 at 3:57 PM MST. And Mercury is in Aries until March 31. What could go wrong? You may want to get out and stay the course. But, don't forget to wear green. St. Patty's day is here and everyone could benefit from a little luck. So, bust out the dancing shoes, clover green t-shirts, and enjoy a round of green beer. Good luck!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Your heart is willing, but the flesh is weak. Don't be so hard on yourself. The only shame is not learning from your mistakes. Wisdom comes when you can appreciate the times you've failed and move onward. Keep chugging forward. The greatest gift you can give yourself is compassion and a little TLC. Unconditional love applies to you, get out there and try again. You got this!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Hope floats! Stop trying to live the life of your dreams and just do it. Your life is precious and has meaning. You only need to seek and uncover your purpose. This is a lifelong journey with many steps, hills, and valleys. How glorious. How amazing. Stop lolling about and get in on the action. Your heart is dreaming, so go ahead and try. What can you lose? Just do it!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Regret is a painful loss. It's the source of unnecessary pain and heartache and like heart disease—it's preventable. So, stop wallowing in regret and get out there and get into the action. You may fail. You may not win an award. But, isn't it better to be a contender for the Olympics than someone who didn't try. A broken heart is better than none at all. The choice is yours.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You're a proud person. Pride comes before the fall. You should have faith in your abilities, but someone is always better, richer, bigger, or just more. This is not the root of failure. You must continue to try and hone your skills. Stop bragging and start doing. To be the best, you must continue to challenge yourself. Never stop! Keep going and you will find greatness.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Life is not an individual sport. Humans are a herd species. However, a few moments alone are a balm to the weathered spirit. This too shall pass. Enjoy your moments and cherish your freedom—it's well earned. You may find yourself trapped in your own thoughts and full of regret. But, remember life is a journey not a destination. There's always hope—always.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Your heart begs for you to listen. This is your conscience and your spirit seeking out your purpose. The journey of life will take many forms, but only you can decide which one is worth the doing. You have a generous spirit and an adventurous heart. Perhaps this is the time for seeking those paths, going on quests, and taking on dragons. Live with meaning.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

Sharpen your saw! Meaning, your mind requires as much discipline as the body. Only you know what your future holds. This world is full of promise, if you're willing to put in the work. It's up to you, to determine, what is worth doing and what isn't. The fork in the road is not the end of the line. You're on a journey endowed with riches, if you can see them for what they are.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

In order to find your fortune, you must first seek it. There are many paths on the way to greatness, but only one needs you. Only you know what you seek. Only you know what you're willing to do and how far you're willing to go. Your purpose will not happen upon you. And the beginning of a thousand-mile journey begins with one step. Get stepping!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You're a selfish being. Don't worry, all human beings are to some extent. You must stop and ask yourself, if your particular brand of selfish is helpful or hurtful to loved ones, the environment, or the world. You may need to ask your friends for clarity. But, now is the time for taking action. Don't worry about the devilish details. Pick a direction and start hacking away at the weeds. GO!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Life may get you down in the dumps. But, you're a lovely soul. Stop fretting about what could be and start dealing with what is. You have the chance to take some time and do what you should have always done. Let go. Forgive those who wrong you. Stop worrying about getting even and start living your life. If you don't, then you will have regrets. Live. Now.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

The heart is a lonely hunter. But, you don't have to do this journey alone. You may not find your true love in a pretty package. They may be just as damaged as you. And that's the beauty of it. You love them in all their deficiencies, and they you, in return. Stop looking for perfection and beauty in a superficial package. Create life with true beauty and live a good life. Say yes!

You may wish for another time or place. But, those wishes merely deprive you of the present moment. Don't give up on love or life. Take to the streets and start moving. Try new things and have fun. Don't wait for life to catch up and be right—just take right now. Take life with both hands and start doing something. You'll find your calling and life will have meaning. Good luck!
