Did you see the Pink Moon? If you didn't, don't despair—there's no FOMO here. In fact, it's the name of the first full moon of Spring. It's so named after the phlox, a pretty pink North American flower. You may find yourself feeling as if you've missed out. But, Madame G assures you that's just a thought. A rose is still a rose by any other name. Enjoy the moment!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Don't fret over spilt milk or make an Everest from a prairie dog hole. You may feel pulled in random directions or that you're following a path—you don't want. This may be true. Madame G encourages you to stay the course. Patience is not a lost virtue. It's a sign of true strength to do what you don't want, when you must. Courage looks good on you. Share your strength.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Don't be surprised when others show interest. This is the beginning of something beautiful. You may not always know who to trust or why, but the truth remains—you are worth it. Instead of chasing those who barely show an interest. Sit back and wait for those who truly care. In the end, you'll be happy for a friend. Have a care and show the world your smile. You are worth it.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

The soul wants what it wants. You may not have much choice in what stirs the passions, but, you do have choice in how you respond. Instead of blaming those who are good at their craft, take care and learn from them. This is not the final act, it's only the beginning. Your greatest gift and talents will be observed in those who know you well. Delight in the joy of others. Carry on!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

Anger is such a palatable emotion, until it consumes you. This is not the way of peace or joy. In fact, it's pretty destructive. You may feel powerful in the moment, but you'll learn to regret it. You'll destroy yourself. Instead of raining fury upon your loved ones, consider what this really costs you. What's the price for Earthly misery? What price do you pay for a soul?

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Your heart of gold matches the smile. Your qualities add joy to countless lives. In moments of quiet reflection, remember to thank the ones you care about. Your plans are great, just don't forget to learn, laugh, and love more. There are worlds yet left undiscovered. Treasurers have yet to be tilled. Take charge and aim high and find that pot of gold. GO!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You're heading out on a fabulous adventure. You may take one turn and not another who knows what you'll find. The sky is the limit. Freedom is there. Remember without a map you could get lost. But, you might enjoy this. There are no true regrets in life, for you must live with what you are and what you have done. Pick a road. No matter where you go. It'll be interesting. Live well.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

You're an odd sort. You tip from one side of the scale to another. Ultimately, you don't pick sides. This is good—up to a point. At other times, this balance distracts you. Your overzealousness may hinder something more important than fact. Blind justice is still blind. What do you care about the most? Following the letter of the law or truth. You must choose.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

A rose by another name… Don't get bogged down in details. You may find a worthy instrument to guide your way, but don't obsess. Dig deep and flesh out the truth of the matter. Don't get so trapped in yourself that you become lost to greed. This is a trial like any other. And once you summit this emotional Everest—you will go on. Life is a challenge. Good luck!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Do you have grit? You may feel at your wits end, but you're not. You have a little juice left in the tank. This may propel you out the door, or down the path, and either way it's good. You know what must be done and only you can do it. Regrets are useless and meaningless—this is the way of the world. Only you can fix your problems. And by the same token, only you create them.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Life is a pain in the ass. But, like your backside—it's the only one you have. Is this really how you want to live it? Do you really want to spend your time complaining? Life is hard for everyone and not everyone deserves good things, just as not all people deserve bad things. You're blessed by the mere fact of your existence. Take charge of your life and stop loafing.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Your heart is truly happy when exploring the cosmos. You may take this as a perpetual challenge or lifelong struggle. Either way, boredom doesn't suite you. So, stop daydreaming and go put your thoughts on paper, in song, or in a sculpture. Only then will you find the peace you seek. It's in your blood. Do yourself a favor and do it, on the count of three: three, two, one—GO!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Not all that glitters is gold… If you get something undeserved—even if you didn't ask for it—don't expect the world to thank you. Your friends and co-workers won't be happy, if you drop all the work on them to have a meltdown especially, if you get a better piece of the pie. You may get ahead for a while with this mode of operation. Is this how you want to live? Think about it.
