A Full Moon is coming on May 10—you know what that means—it'll be bright! Human beings are fascinating. We ascribe meaning to everything good and bad. Sometimes a pipe is just a pipe. Madame G suggests you pull your head out of the sand and look around. It's May! The sun might be shining. Birds may sing. A blizzard may come, who knows. Look up! Smile.

Aries (March 21-April 19)

If you create a mountain out of a bad dream—you're bound to face the heat. Stop wasting your energy controlling others. Take a breath and say hi! My name is…and I'm a chronic worrier. The first step is always admitting your weaknesses or you'll ruin relationships along the way. It won't be worth it. So, take ahold of yourself. Wake up! Smell the coffee. Today is wonderful.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

You try to keep it together, and you do. Go you! You're on top of the world and spinning faster. Nothing is out of your reach. You seem unstoppable. Is there something missing? Perhaps you alienated a loved one over the recent elections. Reach out, family and friends will always work it out, if someone sets aside the hate. Be the hero! Be the leader. Save the world. GO!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Your heart's in the right place. Is your head? You shouldn't stick it out too far and lose it. You need it. It's a gamble to let others do the thinking. You'll surely regret the outcome. If you don't know what to do—take the first step. The hardest part is trying. If you fail, you win. If you win you win. If you don't try—you lose by default. That's terrible. WIN!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

Catching up with old friends is fun and terrible. Stop comparing yourself to others. Now is the time to live the life you've always wanted. You don't need to meet someone else's expectations. You do you, and you'll be happy. You can't expect anyone to be happy for you unless you take the time for yourself. It's on you to live. It's on you to be happy. Choose wisely!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Life is funny. We don't always have what we need when we need it. This is especially true of knowledge and wisdom. They say youth is wasted on the young. But, this teaches us so much about gratitude and living in the moment. Enjoy what you have, including wisdom, now that you have it. It's a blessing that know you know what you didn't back then. It's called happiness.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

So far to go and so much to do. You may never stop. You may never quit. You may take a trip to Wonderland and chase the fairy bunnies around a mushroom patch. Eventually you must return to reality. Wouldn't it be wonderful, if all of life was so carefree? NO! Of course not. Where would you be without challenge? If you're not growing, you're stagnating.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

You're in need of a change. This is true with or without a real vacation lined up. If you can't get away, consider taking time off of your troubles. You can't walk away from them. You can certainly take a vacation from yourself. Read a book. Take the dogs for a walk and enjoy the sun. You don't have to go far to get close to nature and away from negativity.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Poor sensitive soul. You sting with a thousand deadly suns. But, you're mushy on the inside. If someone brings you down, ask: why? Your responsible, for your words and actions, not those of others. Take this storm like any other. Don't take abuse, especially from a loved one. This is not healthy for either of you. Be strong. Be kind. Keep going and don't look back. Let go!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You have a fierce spirit. It's just hidden by all that flab. You may be fit physically, but you're letting your mind go to waste. This doesn't have to be. Reach out to those who need you. Read a book. Attend a lecture or head downtown for ArtsCrawl. The time is now. You can't put your life on hold forever. Time won't wait around for you.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Catering to the needs of others is a dutiful task. But, only Jesus admires martyrs. You have a choice, stand up for your rights or get knocked down. Remember, survival of the fittest. Stop asking what others can do for you and ask: what can I do for myself and others? This is a more empowering path. This leads to happiness and contentment. The other stuff can wait, for never.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Your heart of gold suffered a loss. Remember your heart didn't really break, your expectations of the other person did. You may wish they were different. That's absurd. They are who they are. This is, and always will be true. You will always be you too. Perhaps you've disappointed them. In the end, what does it really matter. You must live your life, not theirs. Choose you.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Friendships are complicated. They bring happiness and joy. You'll notice disappointment and regret too. It's up to you to choose what you'll accept and what you won't. For once in your life, consider the road less traveled. Take the high ground and admit that no one is perfect—even your perception. Be you. And share that with the world. Peace!
