

Aries (March 21-April 19)

New experiences are a challenge. They confront your basic fears: are you good enough? Why am I doing this? Though it may seem easier to stay in the status quo, remember: if you “aint” growing you’re stagnating. Don’t panic! That is rule number one. The second, is enjoy the journey. Get out of your head and start living in the moment. You’ll do just fine. You’re ready. Go!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Life is full of unexpected joys and sorrows. Of course, it’s all in your perception. At one point losing a job you hate, but can’t afford to lose may seem like a disaster. On the other hand, maybe it forces you to look towards a brighter future. You may have to get crafty and find yourself. Whatever your challenge, get up! Dust yourself off and get cracking. Destiny awaits!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Your logic is warring with your intuition. In cases like these, it’s actually logical to listen to both sides. But, the body has its own wisdom and scientists have proved that there are brain tissues in your heart and gut. So, listen to your head, heart, and gut. If something seems dangerous it probably is. If you feel it’s time to leave—do it! Don’t wait! Don’t hesitate. Do it.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You don’t owe anyone an explanation for how you live your life. After all, it’s your life. You may choose to set out on an unknown fool’s errand—maybe it is—maybe it’s your destiny. Maybe you’re the fool. Well, every kingdom needs one. Whatever your chasing, embrace it with both hands. You’ll never know until you try—and fail—and try again. Good luck!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

So, this is love! You're experiencing life in the fullest sense. Pure freedom and enjoyment. Don't forget to take a few breaks while you're pursuing your bliss. Now is the best time for being fully and wholly yourself. Now is the time to live like you've never lived before. It's never too late to be who you've always wanted to be. Have a blast and a nap! GO! Snore.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

What are you waiting for? You never know until you try, if you can do something or not. And even if you fail—you should try again. You don't need to keep failing in the same way. Just look for a new way of living. Life is not about perfection. It's about enjoying perfect little moments while taking a break from the really big ones. It's up to you and greatness.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

This is it! Your hard work is culminating into this one big event. Don't close your eyes or you may miss out. The thing is, everyone needs a little rest. Don't get trapped into the bog and fog of: "work, work is never done." Just let go. You can't control the weather or other people. The only person you can control is yourself. So, let go of the struggle. Be free! Take a breath.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Creativity has a way of sneaking up on you. Don't rush it. Instead of rushing a project to death, just wait. Allow time to heal all wounds and clear away the sediment. You'll notice that the mud falls right down to the bottom. Focus on one project at a time and put first things first. You'll get nowhere fast, if you bounce from one to the other. Instead focus on completing just one.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Do the right thing, at the right moment, and in the right way—that's timing. Timing is everything. The best time to tell someone you have issues is not when they're crying over a loss. You may feel like yelling at the new clerk behind the counter, but your new boss is just walking around the corner. Remember, life is not a sprint—it's a marathon. Thaw out a little.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You have dreams. What are they? If not, why not. You only have yourself to blame. You can't blame anyone else for making or not making the life of your dreams—the life you've always wanted. Do yourself a favor, think about your dream life. Picture, it in your head. Clean out the unnecessary bits. There you are. It's probably closer than you think.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You're probably thinking—is this it? When you get to the end of a journey it can be disappointing. Was the buildup worth it? Are you ready to walk a thousand miles back? Remember what you learned on the journey, it's the journey that matters not the number of steps or where you're going. Enjoy watching the cherry blossoms and children laughing. Good!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

You're learning. You may feel the way to someone's heart is through your wallet, but you're wrong. That's just the consumerism talking. In fact, the way to any heart (worth having) is through honesty and sincerity. Help someone when they need. Reach out when you notice a job well done. Show gratitude at the best and worst of times. You'll get it.
