

A New Quarter Moon emerges on Friday and Venus is in Taurus until July 4. Celebrate our Independence Day with a brilliant display of lights! You may notice it's not only the stars, stripes, and fireworks heating up. You may well experience fierce passion. This may be for a side project, lover, or life. Madame G suggests you get out there and light up the sky!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Your hands and your head are filled with concern. You overthink everything. You know this. However, it's not always easy to let go. Instead of forcing it to go away. Embrace it. Consider yourself as having two halves: light and dark. You must embrace both in order to live. If you hide from one you neglect the other. Share yourself with the world and let it amaze you.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Your sign is in Venus until July 4. Let this energy surround you and fuel you with the necessary energy to complete what's been left undone. Take charge of your energy force. Don't share it around willy-nilly. Learn to embrace change and let go of fear. You're not free falling. You're living. It's a beautiful contradiction and you must let go of the worry. Live free my friend!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Who knew a stranger could be so cool? You may find yourself opening up around those you've never met. This is a good thing. Get out there and meet new people and embrace new ideas. You never know what doesn't work unless you try it. You may find that this is not your destiny and doesn't really fit—but you're that much closer to what will. Take care and have fun!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You're a power unto yourself. You don't share this easily. However, you can't hoard a good thing—that's you. If you want more happiness get out there and share yourself with the world. You don't need to be everything to everyone. You may find that to one person you are a friendly stranger to someone else a lover and to another a friend. You have the capacity to live fully. GO!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Don't limit yourself. It's often easier to dispense advice that doesn't directly impact you, but take your own good advice. You're worth more than you think. Instead of coming at the problem like a bulldozer come at it from the side. Bend their reality to fit your needs. Consider that everything is a win-win or a win-win-win. Be the best person in the room and they'll give or you walk.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

The heart wants what it wants. It's no crime that you love who and what you do. However, you can't remain stuck. You will not grow to new levels if you don't take that first shaky step forward. If you really care about the whims of others that means you're not listening to the song within. Take a deep breathe. Plot your next move. Execute. You've got this.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

You're a little hunter. You may fear spiders and things that go bump in the night, but your prey is subtler. You spy with your little eye, the wounded soul. You may try to fix the problem or bend this to your needs. Everyone loves a little attention now and then. Beware the temptation to use this to your advantage. People realize manipulation and won't thank you for it. Try again.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

You're a worrier. You may reveal a tough exterior but that doesn't mean you don't feel a little crazy. In fact, you may feel drained by those who seek your energy—it's often a balm for the needy. But, you must first care for yourself before you can possibly share this with others. Look within and prepare to fight for yourself. Forgive yourself. Live the life you've always wanted.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Hardheaded and foolish? You may find this is one and the same. It's good to resist when there is a reason and it's good to stick to your guns. Sometimes you must let go and let others have a say. You can't just sit around and assume you're right. Your new phrase shouldn't be: "am I right or am I right." You're not. You may in fact be wrong. Take care. Show compassion.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You may ask: what's in a word? Well, that's a good question. But, the word is loaded. Remember the Book of John, in the beginning was the word. You may not put a lot of stalk in what you or others say. Reconsider. Our words have the power to heal, reconnect, and torment. You may argue there are worse things—you're right. You're also wrong. Words matter.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Live with an open and free heart. You're working miracles as you speak. If you decide on the next course of action you may just encounter your next path. This may lead to your destiny as you create the life you've always wanted. It's on you to live well. You may face many unintended consequences both good and bad. Whatever the case, you've made the decision.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Madame G guide to the stars WEEK OF JUNE 30

Your heart is incredlby full. It's nearly bursting. You may feel overwhelmed with grief and hollowness. It's on you no matter what you decide. You have a life to live and it's never easy to discover the way of the world. You may discover that others are not what they seem or that you're not ready for the journey you chose. This life is never sure. It's a trial by fire.
