

Mercury enters Libra on September 29 and will remain there until Oct. 17. Libra's influence on anything will incorporate balance and justice. You may find yourself flip-flopping on your ideas and this might just be progress. Madame G suggests you take time to reflect and evaluate your ideas. Be your own worst critic and dig deep for the answers. Dwell in ambiguity!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You're having a blast. You feel and look great! This momentum is heating up your libido and stamina. Good for you! Your enthusiasm is infectious and greatly appreciated by your partner and friends. Remember, we all possess different energy levels and though you may be up—your loved ones may be down. Provide a little help around the house and pull them up with you.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

That's just the way it goes sometimes. One small defeat is not a failure. Instead you should refocus your attention on what really matters—your life. What do you want to contribute to the world? Once you've aligned your life with purpose, you may find that the little defeat was actually a BIG victory because it pushed you in the right direction.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Work not going as planned? Maybe nothing seems to be working out as you expected. Instead of making yourself sick and tired, let go. This sounds harder than it is. You must decide if the heart attack you're creating is worth it. Your work is important, but it's not you—it doesn't define you. You'll never get back more if you don't start putting in more for yourself.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

The world won't change unless you do. The answer to a better life doesn't exist outside your own mind. Happiness is not a destination—it's the entire journey. Ever notice how you experience more satisfaction from a harder period that you pulled through than the easy times? This is an interesting psychological phenomenon. It's one you should explore.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

So, you're getting a little adventurous. Maybe you got a portrait of a German Shepherd tattooed on your shoulder or maybe you crashed a truck into plastic barrels. If you do manage to strike barrels, don't get out and start yelling. This upsets everyone. Instead get outside and enjoy the fresh air. Kick back and enjoy some social times with people you never even considered.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

The world of tomorrow is a crazy place. You enjoy order and structure not the unknown of chaos. But, you may find a little happiness in the beginning of a journey. Remember a journey of a thousand miles begins with one step. Let go of perfection. You may pursue her, but you'll never achieve her. It's better to begin than die waiting to move forward.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

You're a natural negotiator even if your voice shakes. It's important to stress the importance for order and justice. You may want to curb yourself if you get stuck in the muck. No man or woman is an island. If you want to start succeeding and getting across in a new way, you'll need to include others. Reach out they may surprise you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Poor Scorpio. People may fear you. They may have a reason. You're a good-hearted person with a very tender middle. Your loyalty extends for days. It's just when you feel threatened or abused that people are shocked that you're not a push over. Relax. How others react to you is not your problem. Your reaction to them is. Your worth is not lost when someone else disagrees.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Don't quit your job! Well, you may have a good reason, but it's always better to give notice. You don't want be blackballed and put on the city's DO NOT hire list. Your talents will always pull you out of certain scrapes and that's still no excuse to use bad judgments. Unless your following the old rule of "burn the ships." Meaning you intend to succeed or die trying.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

It's all oranges from here. Whatever you decide to do it's up to you. Your life has taken many turns and you're likely far away from where you started. This is either great or not. You're the only one who knows. Instead of looking for all the reasons to be unhappy look for reasons to be happy. If you're lonely, join a group. Try serving others and speak kindly to yourself.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You're almost at the end. You just don't know where that will lead. Will you head towards the highest mountain or will you walk right off a cliff? You may even head to the very depths of a volcano's hell. Where ever you go, you'll need the right equipment. You can't head to Everest without training and a Shirpa. Well, you can't head to success alone.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Your heading towards the moment of truth. Life is really heading in the right direction. You can make it if you keep trying. Don't get too bogged down by a lack of enthusiasm in others. They may be in a different place from you. Remember that you don't require their approval to move forward. This is the way forward. This is the "adulting" part of life no one talks about.
