

The Last Quarter Moon occurs on Friday, March 9. Consider this an excellent time for rest and reflection. You may notice some residual energy from the Full Moon, but this will only cause anxiety. Look towards your future while focusing on the path in front of you. Put one foot in front of the other and keep walking. Madame G wishes you a fair evening with a little mischief.

Aries (March 21-April 19)

What's that whisper on the wind? You may feel a hint of fear at the opportunity about to come. Instead of wallowing in the unknown and blindly fighting your way through a paper bag, take a deep breath. You can't always win by strength alone. Instead take a moment to consider the situation. Do you really kill a fly with a hammer on a stained glass window? No, no you don't.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Well, here we are and there we go. You don't have to make huge moments out of pitiful moments. But, stop to consider that our lives are really just a bunch of little moments that are stacked up together. Define significant moments with the ones you love and appreciate them. You have nothing left to fear if you face each day with an open heart and a free mind. Go you!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You can do this! Whatever you fear to face or whatever decision has left you on the side of a ditch puking your guts out—you're going to be fine. This too shall pass (as does everything). Don't forget to breathe. You're more than capable of taking on the ancient ghosts of your past and the much scarier ghosts of your future. Meet them as friends and they'll treat you with respect.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You're on the right path to your goals. It's important to stop and smell the sage brush. Be thankful for whatever you see around you. Start showing appreciation for the people who mean the most to you. If you're in a relationship, remember to tell your partner you care. Tell them about their excellent features and characteristics. Then watch your relationship shine.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

You're putting up walls! If it's a structure to your house—Excellent work! The best place to rest is in the comfort of your own home. You're working toward your goals and keeping a healthy perspective on the outcome. Life is all about making plans and watching your perfectly well-groomed ideas turn into reality. You may have to bend, but use a measuring compass.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

What else can you do? You must live your life, not as god intended, but as you intend. This doesn't mean you can't take inspiration from on high. You must look towards the divine for inspiration on how to live well and fully. But, only you can define what living on high means to you. You must live this life—for you'll only have yourself to blame.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

Don't be nervous Libra. People are taking notice of your extra efforts. You're doing a bang up job. They're proud of you and they want you to know it. It's one thing to lead people by force—it's another to help them through the fire by walking with them. You're capable of ripping tin from a roof with your hands. But, it's not necessary. Walk softly. You have friends.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Changes are coming. But you've been prepared for this. Even as the dust settles and the action has occurred, dear little Scorpio is looking further. Remember to take time for yourself otherwise you'll get trapped into a deep sleep at a bad time. Instead take simple moments for yourself each day. Don't forget the gym. Plan for the future, while living fully in the present. This is your time.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

What's in a name? You have no idea. You just want your paycheck and to go home. This is a bit of a mess, but it's of your own creation. You miscalculated. But, this doesn't have to be the end of the road. Look into a mirror and look at yourself—really look. What do you see? Who are you? Who are you meant to become? Are you there yet? Why not?

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

The world is full of the ungrateful and ingrates. Don't become one. If you want to see change in the world, you must become the leader you've always wanted. Start by taking care of yourself. Lean into what you'd really like to do in this life and live free of constraint. What's one dream you had as a little boy or girl? Are you living that dream? If not, it's time for some fun. GO!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

All's well that ends well. You never know if the person who pisses you off is really a good friend in the making. Sometimes, enemies make the best of friends. They tell you what you don't really want to hear or acknowledge about yourself. It can be annoying at first, but you must let go of your anger and stop holding grudges. They don't suit you.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Have you made a mess of it yet? You may think you're heading down the right path. Are you? Only you really know. It's on you to take charge of yourself and learn what you must to be all you can be. Don't make this a contest of words. Stop talking about what you'd like to do and just do it. NO one is stopping you except for you. You don't need permission.
