

On November 21, a last quarter moon occurs. According to Dana Gerhardt's Moon Series, this is a "wobbly time" with a sense of uncertainty. As we come to the end of Scorpio, you'll notice positive and negative aspects. The benefits are passion, drive, and dedication — you'll also feel vindictive and manipulative. Madame G recommends taking a deep breath. This too shall pass.

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Are you searching for distraction? You've found it. It's not always easy to judge what's best, especially if it feels good. Look inward. If you're escaping a bad situation, run. But, if you're attempting to hide from yourself — you can't. Madame G suggests asking hard questions. Look at the situation as it is, but don't make it worse than it is. You're capable. You'll conquer!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Do what you love and passion follows. Nothing sucks life from your soul like pretending to care when you don't. How long is too long? If you have kids, your priority will remain fixed on them. That's good. But, don't forget about yourself. You can give your children the life they need and deserve and find happiness. It's possible. It takes work, but you can find it. You deserve it.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

In the ever-persistent quest for your other half, you've met some interesting characters. Do any strike you as odd? Maybe they stand out. Why? Sometimes big, huge, personalities stand out in a negative way. You'll find positives too, if they have something that sells. Think like a Scorpio for a moment; there is something to learn in every situation. Be tactical. Be strategic. You will!

Whatever your thoughts on the election, change is inevitable: positive or negative. What'll it be for you? Human beings don't survive or accomplish anything on their own: "no man is an island." Consider reconnecting with friends and family. It's always good to know you have friendly people in your corner. Having a few supporters can go a long way towards change.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Grief is part of life. We must all make a sacrifice for existence — the price is loss. But, this aspect is less important than how we live our life. Consider the transformative power of the Scorpion. They're known to regrow tails after they've sacrificed one to an enemy. It's for the greater good — their life. You're strong Leo. You'll rock this day and this life. You've got this!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You may feel trapped in a tight spot. You can't move forwards or backwards. It's hard to know what path to travel. Consider Robert Frost's poem: "I took the road less traveled by and it has made all the difference." There is no right way to live. You must make a choice. You must live with conviction. Be brave Virgo. Show no fear, face this day with strength. You can do it!

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

It's hard to lose control. You may assume someone is purposefully rebellious or negligent. Perhaps they don't fully understand. Don't judge someone's first draft with your polished one. The best way to lose credibility is to push someone so far they give up or turn on you. Be wise dear Libra, and tread carefully. Human beings don't act rationally — they're emotional. Even you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Darker feelings have arisen lately. You may feel backed into a corner with nowhere to turn. The baser level Scorpio will sting and lash out. The Scorpio transformed realizes the sacrifice of a metaphorical tail or ego is but a small sacrifice in the scheme of life. Think long term. Don't waste it all in the moment. Act rationally while everyone else doesn't. Wait. Be patient. Strike!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You have dreams, and dreams upon dreams. Whether those dreams lead to action are another story. Do your best to live, but living involves more than just enjoying a few drinks and partying. You need balance. Your body and mind are seeking this even if you don't realize it. When one part of the self (body, mind, soul) gets out of whack everything else reacts. Take care!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You're touched by recent events. You may view them from half a lens. Maybe you're not really taking it all in, or maybe you haven't yet come to grips. You must look in the mirror and take a stand. Understand what you feel and why. Can you help a friend? Perhaps your greatest gifts are helping those who can't find peace or joy. Maybe it's to stand and fight. Who knows, but you.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Your life has meaning. But, only you can decide what it means. Don't waste your life being a half version of someone else's vision. You'll only be less than yourself and be terribly unhappy. And they'll be terribly disappointed. You're only shot at true joy is to live fully of yourself. Give fully of yourself too. Then when you stand before the world they'll hear you roar. Go you!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

It's hard to know what's too much. Perhaps you have a friend who brings out the best in you. It's easy to feel embarrassed, especially if you admire them. Listen to the old advice, that's the best advice: be yourself. If they're who you think they are—they'll appreciate it. If they're not, you've learned a very important lesson: never be less of yourself for someone else. Good luck!
