Fall in Line, Holden

is a story about boarding school era education, a period when Navajo (Diné) identity and language were suppressed. It is a story rich in imagination, which carries over to

Herizon

, a book dedicated to his nieces with the hope for a more inclusive, empowering future. The story details the journey of a young Diné girl as she helps her grandmother retrieve a flock of sheep aided by a magical scarf. In an age that has seen the election of the first female vice president in U.S. history, speaks to the power of the moment and honors progress and persistence to reach audiences from any background. For more information email aprice@gallupnm.gov or call (505) 863-1291.
