

FRIDAY Sept. 9

E Pluribus Unum: Dinétah

Through Sept. 12, Axle Contemporary mobile gallery embarks on its project documenting the people of the Southwest. The portrait studio will be open, for free, for all members of the community. Bring any small object of personal significance to your portrait. Photos are immediately printed; one is given to the participant; one is wheatpasted to the exterior of the mobile gallery; a third will be part of an exhibit of the project at the Navajo Nation Museum. A book will be published with the entire collection of photographs, writing by participants, and a singular image on the cover created by blending the hundreds of portraits. Copies of the book will be distributed for free to all participants. Visit axleart.com for exact dates and locations.
