basic idea is to make it a day filled with all the things she enjoys. Add a massage or facial to the line up for some extra pampering!

2. Maid for Momma

Help mom out by doing the chores. Spiffy up the house, organize the garage, detail or wash her car, organize her closet, or just simply wash the dishes.

3. Plan a Road Trip

Pack a simple picnic lunch and find a park or trail. If mom is an angler at heart, plan a day at her favorite lake. She'll appreciate enjoying time with family.

4. Give a Wildflower Bouquet

Stop: before you do this, please stay off private property. Your neighbor won't appreciate you plucking their daffodils for your heartfelt bouquet. Go to areas off the beaten path to cultivate the perfect and one-of-a-kind arrangement.

5. Breakfast in Bed

If you think you can make a delicious breakfast to surprise mom with, by all means, go for it!

6. Personalize a gift basket.

It doesn't have to be a bunch of spendy spa products. Fill that basket with mom's favorite snacks and other fun items. Make sure that you include a handwritten gift note!

7. Candlelight Dinner

It can be a family affair! Serve a candlelit dinner, give her roses, and recite a sappy poem that you wrote on your own.

8. Write Mom a Letter

We live in a world where handwritten notes are becoming rare, so why not write your mom a letter? Note all of the wonderful memories you shared together this past year and let her truly know how much you care for her. Present letter with a small, personalized gift.

9. Plan a Movie Night

This budget gift is great for movie buffs but will work for just about any mom who enjoys spending time with family. Plan an evening centered around movies and the snacks mom loves. And don't forget her favorite dessert!

10. Make Mom a Dessert

If you can bake goodies, that is a direct line to the heart. What's your mom's favorite treat? She'll appreciate the hard work you put into concocting the perfect dessert.
