

New process slows selection of Ceremonial board

Written by By Holly J. Wagner Sun Correspondent
Friday, 08 March 2024 00:00

Artists and other participants eager to get their entries in for the 102nd Gallup Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial this year will have to wait a little longer as the new process for appointing the GITIC association board plays out.

Although board members who have been serving in recent years are eager to get premium books and entry schedules out, the board is in a holding pattern until mid-March because there are more candidates than seats and a new selection process.

By Holly J. Wagner
Sun Correspondent