

Gallup celebrates the 36th MLK Day with food, clothes for those in need

Written by Staff Reports

Friday, 28 January 2022 07:24

On the 36th annual celebration of Martin Luther King Day, people in the Gallup area gathered at St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church at 1121 W. Lincoln Ave. to give and receive food and clothing donations and distributions following the principles of Dr. King to help those in need. The event was sponsored by the church, the City of Gallup and included help from the Gallup Community Pantry.