

Red Ribbon Parade at St. Francis

Written by By Tom Hartsock Sun Correspondent Photos by Julie Weeks
Friday, 06 November 2015 04:31

Red Ribbon Day was Oct. 27 and students at St. Francis Elementary School formed a parade for their neighborhood and proudly displayed the signs they had made for all to see.

The annual anti-drug day is celebrated by many area schools and the students seem to love the extra-curricular activity that gets them out of the classroom, at least for a while.