Trailer park party ends in violence

An arrest warrant has been issued for a Gallup man in a stabbing that took place May 20 at the Hillcrest Mobile Home Park along east Aztec Avenue and that ended at the Rehoboth McKinley Christian Hospital.

According to the arrest warrant, Quentin “Q” White, 19, was at a party at the trailer park with Levi Dawes and other people. The party was at the residence of David Turner, the warrant says.

Dawes and White fought over something and had to be separated by some other people attending the function, the arrest warrant states. Dawes eventually left the party and got into a car driven by his sister, Desiree Dawes. That’s when he noticed that he had been stabbed and was driven to a local hospital by his sister. The arrest warrant states that Dawes was stabbed in the left torso area.

White, stands 5’8”and weighs about 148 pounds. He’s wanted on a $5,000 cash only bond. He faces a charge of aggravated battery with a deadly weapon.
