

RAMAH, NM

Dean Miller, 45, of Las Vegas, NV was attempting to deliver products to the Family Dollar store in Ramah Aug. 10, when he saw a red Jeep blocking the delivery doorway. When he “kindly” asked the driver to move his vehicle, the man grabbed his genitals and then accused Miller of “coming onto him.” The suspect is described as a Native American male in his 20’s with glasses. The clerk at the store told McKinley County Sheriff’s Office Deputy Robert Turney that he had been parked “for a long time.”

GAMERCO

MCSO Deputy Arthur Rahimi took a property damage report Aug. 8 on Rust Ave. According to the report, the complainant told Rahimi that her roommate’s ex-boyfriend came knocking at the door. When they refused to let him in, “he got upset and used both of his fists to break the outside pane to the east facing window of the residence.” Rahimi was unable to find the suspect.

JAMESTOWN, NM

MCSO Deputy Lasheena Johnson towed a vehicle and took a man to Gallup Detox after Refinery Firefighters were able to get the vehicle turned off. Devin Oleary, 24, displayed some signs of intoxication, there was no odor of intoxicating beverage and a portable breath test showed .00. Another employee told Johnson that Oleary had been driving on the wrong side of the road and had “almost ran into some poles near the parking lot.”

NORTH SIDE BUSINESS DISTRICT

A man was found severely beaten in the hills behind the Rio West Mall Aug. 8. Weston Yazzie, 33, of Ganado, Ariz. was taken to a local hospital and then later flown to a hospital in Albuquerque due to the injuries that he sustained, according to the report filed by MCSO Deputy

Weekly Crime Blotter

Written by By Kimberly Gaona Sun Correspondent
Friday, 14 August 2015 05:13

Johnson Lee. Gallup Police Department first responded and Yazzie told them, according to the report, that he was beaten up by two men and had been lying in the hills “since before the sun came up.”