Aries (March 21-April 19)

With Mercury coming out of retrograde you can loosen your tie, kick up your heels or take that road trip with no destination in mind. Or, you can close the deal on that house or car you have been wanting to buy. The choice is yours and now it's time to strike while the iron is hot!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

For you bullheaded one, you may feel like an actual bullhead stuck in someone's shoe. But, as the Moon trines Neptune, it's time to focus on projects that have seemed like a lot of work. Playful Neptune will help make a project that normally feels like work a fun task. Go ahead, clean that messy closet. You will enjoy it.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Don't mix business with pleasure. That boss or co-worker may be smoking hot, but they are steaming poison. To resist the temptation, quit ordering pitchers of beers with your coworkers every night after work. Create a life away from work and escape into the poetry of your own life.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

The Moon is romancing you as it trines with the adventurous Neptune. This is a great time to get out there and try your luck at dating, if you're single. Take that date out to somewhere swanky. If you're in a relationship, try spicing things up with a date night. Go see a scary movie so your honey will grab you tight!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

With the sensitive Moon in your fourth house, along with a nuanced Neptune, your intuition is at an all time high. You have been thinking about people that you love. And people that are not currently in your daily realm. It's time to pick up the phone and call that old friend. It will help you to feel more connected to loved ones near and far.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

The tango between the Moon and Neptune has you in analytical mode Virgo. Cool your jets and resist the urge to over think every task you engage in this week. It will drain you. Instead, think fun thoughts! Things you can do next weekend to keep your mind occupied with the more joyous side of life.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

Neptune has pulled up chair in your sixth house of wellness, and has fried up some greasy bacon and eggs, clogging your thoughts with temptation. Don't be offended by Neptune, as he wants to remind you to change things up to keep boredom from setting in. Sensible Moon will keep you in check.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

For Scorpio, the Moon-Neptune trine is a welcome gift. You open that gift and it's filled with a potpourri of great ideas that will help you to make clear decisions and keep you from barking orders at others. Instead of being the steamrolling leader, you're in the mood to listen to others for a change. Embrace it, at least for a week.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Hey sexy archer, feeling lovey dovey these days? It's because that Moon and Neptune tango has impacted your romance house. It's the sentimental part of love you're feeling obligated to explore. If you're commitment phobic, you're feeling out of whack by your sudden sentimentality.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Must you always be reminded to focus on relationships and not only work? Yes, G here thinks you need that kick in the pants, again. Since you're all about business these days, try helping a coworker or friend with her business plan. Giving back makes you feel great and will help to re-solidify any cracks in your relationships.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

With the Moon-Neptune trine, you're likely feeling like a million-and-one bucks. This is the week to make the move, take the risk, or seal the deal. It's because Neptune has tickled you silly with great ideas and the Moon with some stability. It's a recipe for success, now get in the kitchen of life and cook it up!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

You are being tickled into a great mood by Neptune and keeping grounded by the sensible Moon. It's a good time to go shopping for that big purchase, but not without comparison shopping first. Don't let doubt get in the way, trust in yourself for a change and put that big TV on layaway.
