

According to Tarot.com, Jupiter will move into Libra and remain there until October 2017. This is a peaceful and lucky pairing. You may find new and exciting relationships or strengthen older ones. Whatever the case, tuck in your chin and get ready for some full-body belly laughs. Madame G suggests you look forward and smile. You're blessed!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Don't get nervous if you're girlfriend or partner brings home a new man. He's a lovely fellow, with one blue and one brown eye. He also has the wettest nose on the block. You'll fall in love too, eventually. Consider opening yourself to the possibility of a new friendship — of the canine variety. Support your local animal shelters and adopt or foster a little bundle of joy. Yay!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

It's tough to open up for new love. But that's exactly what you must do for your own sake and that of your future. Try revealing your softer side. You don't have to completely expose your entire heart just show a little at a time. Over time, you'll notice that you've given your heart and it's wonderful. You'll be so excited that you did. It'll be worth it. Good luck!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

The past weeks have been intense and disruptive. You'll appreciate the positive pairing between Jupiter and Libra. This offers a lovely aspect right in time for fall. Consider taking action on anything that you've left undone. Say yes this week! Stay open to the unexpected in odd packages. You may find love in a wonky-eyed shelter cat or a barrel-chested bookwork. Enjoy!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

Are you crazy? Perhaps you're just a little mentally unstable. You may not be asking this, but everyone around you is saying: he's nuts. You've had a tough year. Not all of the drama is your fault, you're just a participant in it. Remember, it's not what happens to us, but how we respond to the situation that counts. Reflect on your behavior and make the appropriate changes.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

You have projects all over the house and you keep finding new ones. Don't get too distracted. But if your kids ask for help with an "around the house" project you should help. It might just make their lives easier, and it's a chance to connect. They may even make you a fancy chocolate cake for all your effort. If you're a health nut, maybe they'll make apple butter instead. Yum!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Enjoy your time in the Sun. This is the time to take action and really work through a challenge. You've been working hard and you'll make it. Think through each problem and assess your situation. The solution will reveal itself in time. Even if your restaurant recently closed and left you without work, you're not worried. You're ready for the next move. You're on it!

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

You're ready for some relief and you're going to get it. You'll be pleased with this week. It's going to take some work, but it'll be worth it in the long haul. In the meantime, just have some good, old-fashioned fun. Get in a big and full-belly laugh. Shout at your neighbors and wave. Hey, you could even do something completely random and adopt a homeless animal from the shelter. Nothing says love better than a devoted friend.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

This past week was emotionally draining. Now you've a decision to make. What will you do? You know your purpose and what you want. But reflect on how you're doing this. If you've been facing resistance or having difficulty getting to where you need to be — try a different approach. You may need to sit down and write out how to do this. You will!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Sometimes you have to let everyone down in order to be true to yourself. This is hard when you have children and loved ones relying on you. But if you quit your job in order to head in the direction you need — you may be right. Just don't sit too long in one place, your family needs you. Search for your dreams, but remember your commitments. Find a way to fuse the two.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Helping family is fun and rewarding. If your kid needs a little extra support, you're always there. You even provide support to friends and act like a mentor for anyone in need. Look for positive and equal relationships this month. You need to find people who love you for you and don't expect anything in return. Live, laugh, and love.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Life is an odd assortment of mishap, good luck, and boredom. You're always ready for a new idea. But you're not always ready for action. That's because you must think everything through carefully. This is a positive attribute. This week, try to be open to new experiences. You'll have fun with new people and new projects if you remain open. Have fun!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)
