

We welcome in a New Moon on Friday, as we head into October. While we bask in the joys of the sign of the scales, consider readjusting your relationships. This is a wonderful time to take stock and reprioritize your life. Madame G recommends you slow down, enjoy the beautiful days of fall, and show love to your family and friends. Live now!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You may find that your love life is spicing up. Are you rekindling an old flame? Perhaps you're ready to take a current relationship to the next level or you're ready for a new one. Whatever the case, don't forget to work on yourself. Confidence looks good on everyone. You don't have to be perfect, gorgeous, or a genius to possess excellence. Know thyself!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Meeting up with old friends will spark the creative juices. You might be ready to own your own tattoo shop, write a novel, or develop the newest iPhone app. Remember, you can't live on creativity alone. You need business sense and grit. You'll conquer mountains if you continue this course and work smart along the way. You're more ready than you know. You've got this!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Do you slog around? Perhaps you're feeling burdened by the challenges of the week. You may find that your walking through mud uphill or fighting to conquer too many boring tasks. Don't worry, this too shall pass! If you're fighting through a task by sheer force of will — stop! Consider your body. Get out of the house and dance. Have fun!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You've made up your mind. You just don't know what that means yet. Whatever the case, don't take your anger out on the world. You can be a pretty tough nut to crack, and like your symbol, the crab, you're a bit crabby. But as only a few who know you really understand, inside, you have a soft, succulent center that is fabulous with butter. So relax a little and smile. You won!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Oh, the places you'll go! Dr. Seuss had it right — you're headed for adventure every day. What new experience will you encounter? What will the next day bring? You don't know yet, but you're excited and ready for whatever may come your way. As your sense of fulfillment overflows, share your joy with those around you. Everyone needs a mentor. You're great!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Now is an excellent time to rethink your priorities. What do you want out of life? What are you willing to sacrifice? What are you willing to gain? Often people are afraid to reach out towards their dreams because they're afraid of what they might lose: financial support, relationships, or security. Consider what you might gain: freedom, love, and adventure. Life is good.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

The scales of justice are a prime symbol for you. Not only do they represent the Libra sign, they're also important to you. Often you're concerned with fairness, social issues, and your relationships. If you've been too career focused—your relationships are likely out of whack or vice versa. You may need to work hard to rebalance them. The cold hard logical hand of the scales will tip without feeling. Be cautious. You can do this!

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Slow down! The world is running around like mad, but that doesn't mean you should. Remember that just because someone didn't plan ahead doesn't make it your problem. You don't owe someone a response just because they ask. Do your thing, observe, and stay humble. This challenge is merely preparing you for the greater test. You've got this!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

It's hunting season. Are you ready? Perhaps you don't hunt game (maybe you do) or maybe you're ready to hunt down your dreams. You could stuff them in a bag, hang them on the wall, or lock them away. Regardless of the situation, you must make a decision. You must go in search of them before they get away, so that you can have some resolution. Stop hiding!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

What does your weekend look like? If you're having dinner with friends, remember to be grateful and a good guest. It's up to you, to live up to your own standards of decorum. It's never attractive to get drunk and make offensive jokes at a dinner party. You'll be embarrassed and never get asked back again. Look for your balance. Seek peace. Meditate.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You're excited for the start of a new season. What does this mean for you? Go ahead live a little, take the dog for a walk, and head up to undiscovered places. Seek joy in life's little moments. There may be joy in the minor frustrations of life, too. So if a little chipmunk thief keeps stealing shiny objects from the shed — you can take pleasure in stealing them back. Enjoy!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Sharing life with another is a great joy and burden. Have you alienated friends or family, for a spouse? Maybe you're not close with your children because they don't like your new partner. It's hard to find the balance between two forces of the heart. But don't chose lightly. It may break you either way. Seek the middle ground, and love. You'll be glad you did.
