After a 10-year hiatus, the DC Comics' All-Star Superman comic book series returns with a new volume. The new volume is written by Grant Morrison and illustrated by Frank Quitely. It features a new story arc that explores Superman's relationship with his family and his role as a hero. The comic is available in both print and digital formats.

Rebel Without a Cause is a 1955 American film directed by James Dean. It is a coming-of-age story about a group of teenagers in a small town. The film is based on the novel by Walter Newman. It is a classic of the 1950s and is considered one of the best films of the decade. The film is available on Blu-ray and DVD.
